

Protect and Enhance Watercourses

Establishing a Vegetative Buffer Zone by Rivers and Streams

Free Workshop – Rain or Shine

Saturday, April 3rd - 3PM to 5PM

At the Kent School Auditorium
1 Macedonia Road, Kent, CT

3 PM –Sean Hayden, Soil Scientist for the Northwest Conservation District, will explain the importance of buffer zones and give a presentation on “The Benefits Of A Healthy Buffer Zone”.

3:30 PM - Kyle Turoczi, Soil Scientist and Wetland Ecologist with Earth Tones Native Plant Nursery, will present “Landscaping Techniques And The Best Plants To Use To Enhance Watercourses”.

4 PM - Meet the experts and walk with them to view nearby erosion problems on the banks of the Housatonic River.

 Free refreshments and informational brochures will be available after the presentation.

Event sponsors: The Housatonic River Commission
The Northwest Conservation District and
The Housatonic Environmental Action League

For more information call Lynn Fowler at (860) 824-8073.